IT'S THE WAY WE THINK
that makes the difference between a good idea and a great one. At IBM, we're constantly redefining the way we think. And that's why we're constantly redefining the way we work. We're constantly redefining the way we think. And that's why we're constantly redefining the way we work. We're constantly redefining the way we think. And that's why we're constantly redefining the way we work.
